Responsibility of the User

Student Computer Use and Internet Access

Students are expected to:

- ❖ Know their Novell login and passwords;
- ❖ Use computers and the Internet for curriculum related purposes;
- ❖ Monitor time online in consideration of others;
- ❖ Use appropriate language;
- ❖ Use responsible, ethical, and legal behavior.
- ❖ Observe copyright laws.

Students may not:

- ❖ Use computers or the Internet for financial gain;
- ❖ Use computers to play any games;
- ❖ Use computers for Instant Messaging or chat rooms;
- ❖ Download files of any kind to any CCPS computer;
- ❖ Degrade or disrupt the performance of computer hardware or software;
- ❖ Change computer settings unless directed by a staff member;
- ❖ Access information inconsistent with curriculum related purposes;
- ❖ Reveal home telephone numbers, address, or other personal information.

Computer use and Internet access are privileges. The consequence of unacceptable use is decided by the school principal or designee and could result in suspension from school or the termination of computer privileges.

I have read and understand the “Responsibility of the User” document. I agree to follow the guidelines above.
