Article IX: The Executive Board

The President has the authority to bring the Association's Executive Board together as a voting body to act on behalf of the General Assembly when it is not convened in general session and cannot be convened in a timely fashion. When acting on behalf of the General Assembly, the Executive Board has the power to enact legislation, make appropriations, and secure funds. The Executive Board, acting on behalf of the General Assembly, may adopt and resolve among itself any indecisive assembly issue that it sees fit. All elected and appointed members of the Executive Board, excluding the President, the Student Member, and the Student Member Elect, are entitled one vote at all meetings of the Executive Board.

Article X: Resignation and Removal from Office

Section 1 - Resignation of the President

The President shall signify his/her intentions in letters to the advisor and Vice-President with the date resignation is to become effective.

Section 2 - Resignation of all other officers

The resigning officer shall signify his/her intentions in a letter to the President and the advisor of the Association.

Section 3 - Removal from office

Any member of the Executive Board may be removed from office for failure to fulfill mandatory qualifications or failure to perform his/her duties as stated in Articles III and Article V.

Section 4 - Removal Process

A. Any member of the general assembly with sufficient probable cause to question the competency of an officer of the CCSGA must request from the President a hearing before the Executive Board, where the accusations will be presented.

B. The charges will be investigated by the Executive Board at their next regular meeting following the accusation hearing and the officer(s) charged will not be allowed to participate in the investigation. A two-thirds majority of the Executive Board is needed to present the charges before the General Assembly. A summary of the investigation must be presented in addition to the rationale behind the decision of the Executive Board.

C. In the event the President is charged, the Treasurer will head the investigation.

D. The General Assembly shall then vote on removal from office by secret ballot. A two-thirds majority vote in favor of removal shall be necessary.

E. If a quorum of three quarters of the General Assembly is not present, no removal vote may take place.

Article XI: Vacancies in Office

Section 1 - The office of President shall be filled by the Vice-President.

Section 2 - The office of Student Member Elect shall be filled in the same manner it is chosen, though the interviews and elections must be conducted in the same month.

Section 3 - The offices of Vice-President, Treasurer, and Second Vice-President shall be filled by Presidential appointment and must be approved by a simple majority of the General Assembly.

Section 4 - All other positions shall be filled in the same manner as they were originally chosen.

Article XII: Parliamentary Authority

Section 1 - The Parliamentary law of the CCSGA shall be governed by those principles set forth in Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised Edition unless those principles come into conflict with a governing act or document of the Association.

Section 2 - Amendments to the Constitution of the Maryland Association of Student Councils shall be considered binding when applicable.

Article XIII: Constitutional Amendments

Section 1- Amendments to the constitution must be pre-filed by presentation before the Executive Board. The Executive Board will review the proposed amendment for clarity, artistry, understanding, and fluency. A legislative work session will be held during the next General Assembly meeting. Delegates may openly debate the amendment in question, and then the General Assembly shall vote on approval or denial. Amendments to the constitution must receive a two-thirds majority of the General Assembly.

Section 2- The Executive Board, while reviewing the proposed amendment, has the power to deny its movement to the General Assembly.

Section 3 - For consistency in technical areas the President shall appoint, when he/she deems it necessary, a person to review the Constitution and make any changes needed for the document to be grammatically correct, provided that the intent of the clause is not changed. Any such changes must be approved by a majority vote of the Executive Board.

Article XIV: Ratification

The Constitution of the Carroll County Student Government Association shall be ratified and shall come into full effect upon receiving a two-thirds majority vote of the General Assembly. If a quorum of one half of the General Assembly is not present, no ratification vote may take place. All elected and appointed members of the Executive Board shall witness the ratification and pledge to uphold the new document by signing a constitutional agreement.

Ratified this 26 day of MARCH, 2010.
