Section Information

Title College Writing 1
 Course Section Number ENGL-101-01

Description
 ENGL-101, College Writing 1, provides students with the opportunity to develop critical reading, thinking, and writing skills. Students will engage fully in the writing process, develop effective rhetorical arguments, compose academic essays that support a thesis statement, and increase stylistic control of their writing. Throughout the course, students will compile Part 1 of their Carroll Community Writing Portfolios, which will be evaluated as the final examination. In addition, students will spend an additional hour per week engaged in Expression Workshop activities, which may include individual or group conferences with the teacher, electronic grammar and punctuation assignments, and department-wide seminars in writing style. Students must demonstrate adequate entry-level skills for this course. Prerequisite: ENG-096 or satisfactory score on the placement test. Students who must take READ-101 may co-enroll in ENGL-101. Four hours lecture each week. Three credits. Four billable hours. GENERAL EDUCATION

Credits 3.00 CEUs

Start Date 30 August 2010 End Date 17 December 2010
