FOUNDATIONS OF HOMELAND SECURITY AND EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS

Course: 540617 (Articulated) 1 credit

Homeland security and emergency preparedness guidelines, concepts, and action plans are key concepts in this course. Emphasis will be placed on unique aspects of public safety and public health. Various methodologies for intelligence gathering and dissemination will be examined. Students will identify various local, state, and federal assets and prepare an action plan that includes initial notification, emergency response (on and off scene), and recovery.

Prerequisites and other notes: This course is the foundation course for both options in the Homeland Security and Preparedness completer program.

HONORS ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE I

Course: 540518 (Honors) 1 credit

This class will introduce students to multiple aspects of criminal justice and law enforcement. Students will explore the criminal process, various forces that impact law enforcement, and the rights of citizens. Students will understand the difference between juvenile and adult justice, and classifications of different crimes. This class will give students a general knowledge needed for students to enter various law enforcement careers at the federal, state, and local levels.

Prerequisites and other notes: Foundations of Homeland Security and Emergency Preparedness is a prerequisite or may be taken concurrently. This course is a part of the Criminal Justice/Law Enforcement option in the Homeland Security and Emergency Preparedness completer program.

ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE II

Course: 540419 (Transcripted) 1 credit

This class will expand upon students' knowledge of criminal justice and law enforcement. Students will be introduced to evidence collection, analysis, and forensic examination. The role of law enforcement officials as a first responder will also be discussed as well as the duties of police officers. Students will explore a range of careers in law enforcement.

Prerequisites and other notes: Administration of Justice I is a prerequisite or may be taken concurrently. This course is a part of the Criminal Justice/Law Enforcement option in the Homeland Security and Emergency Preparedness complete program.

HOMELAND SECURITY AND EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS CAPSTONE

Course: 541319 (Transcripted) 1 credit

This is the final course in the Homeland Security and Emergency Preparedness complete program. Students will apply the knowledge and skills acquired in previous courses in authentic ways to complete an individualized senior project. The project will involve intense problem-solving and research in a student selected career-focused area. Experiences may include but are not limited to research projects, extensive portfolios and work-based learning opportunities. Projects and portfolios will be presented for review and critique.
