

CTE DEPARTMENT ACTIVITIES:

PRINCIPLES OF BUSINESS & MANAGEMENT

Choose 3 of the following activities:

- Journal what you see and hear regarding the coronavirus each day you are off. Reflect on how business is impacted.
- Explain how the coronavirus has affected supply and demand of a product, such as Purell, and thus the price.
- Predict what the near future holds for pricing of various related items.
- Research and explain why the price of Apple (and many other) stocks have fallen.
- Give two examples of how the coronavirus has affected supply and demand—and therefore prices.
- As a manager, how would you provide for your employees' pay while they are unable to work due to sickness or lack of childcare?
- The tax due date of April 15 may be delayed nationwide. Explain the impact of this on individuals and companies.
- Explain how having a spending plan with an emergency fund is relevant to enduring this season of the coronavirus.

BUSINESS COMMUNICATIONS & KEYBOARDING

Keep up your keyboarding and digital citizenship skills by working on the following activities. Bring in your finished work for a Show and Tell.

Typing.com

Take a timing and establish a base typing speed. Then challenge yourself to improve! Keep a record of your scores.

Wordart.com

Create a word cloud for a friend. Include their name and positive characteristics. They will love it!

Make a table.

Create a coronavirus timeline with dates and chronological events.

Create a calendar for the next two months.

FINANCIAL LITERACY

Choose two of the following to write about during your two weeks off from school:

- Journal what you see and hear regarding the coronavirus during your time off.
- Explain how the virus has affected grocery shopping, getting paid, and sick leave.
- Explain why stock prices, like Apple, are affected by the virus news.
- Examine how the supply and demand of a product, such as Purell, have changed pricing during the coronavirus epidemic.

Accounting II

Carroll Community College is going online as of Thursday, March 19. Seniors need to take the Accounting Final Exam before Wed. May 27. In order to do this, we will need to continue Accounting 2 training over the break.

FACS: How the coronavirus is affecting their household:

- Prepare a meal (cooked or cold) and video the process.
- Journal what you eat for the days you are off.
- Explain how grocery shopping at your house has been affected by the coronavirus.

CHILDCARE/TAM

- Reflect on the childcare crisis in light of the coronavirus. How can adults continue to work while making sure their children are well taken care of? Write out your thoughts.
- What measures can be taken to be sure children have access to nutrition while they are away from school? What is the Maryland government doing about this?
- Explain why is it important for students to remain active with school work over the two week break, even if it is not graded.

MOVIES TO WATCH:

- The Pursuit of Happyness
- The Enron Scandal (YouTube)